

Youths to Attend UN

Six students from various high schools competed March 31 at the El Segundo IOOF Hall in a speaking contest for the United Nations Pledge for Youth to determine the winner for the coveted trip to the United Nations in New York City.

John Leonard, a junior at Wilson High School of Long Beach, won the contest with Miss Donna Evarhart of El Segundo High School as the first alternate and Miss Donna Reekers of Narbonne High School the second alternate. Other speakers were Bob Jacobs of Compton High School, Miss Jo Ann Mitchell of Hawthorne High School, and Ross Levine of Redondo Beach High School. The contestants spoke on "Why I would like to see the United Nations in Action."

The United Nations Pledge for Youth is sponsored by the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Association of the Rebekah Assemblies.

John Leonard will leave Sacramento, with twenty-one other winners, on June 11 by train to Chicago. There they will go by bus on an Educational tour through such places as Niagara Falls, Mount Vernon, Valley Forge, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Boston and Ottawa, Canada.

The students will arrive in New York on June 19, and stay through June 25. They will spend the following week finishing the Educational bus tour arriving back in Sacramento on July 2.

John Leonard will spend the United Nations week they will learn of its organization and functioning in its many branches and phases. They will view the United Nations carrying on its business through the simultaneous translation of the five official languages, Spanish, French, Russian, Chinese and English. They will take advantage of the cultural, educational and entertainment values while in New York.

MRS. A. C. FERGUSON

Couple Wed In Yuma

Coming as a surprise to their friends in this area was the wedding in Yuma Arizona on April 16 when Miss Shirley Jean Janssen, daughter of Mrs. Mattie C. Stewart of Torrance became the bride of Albert C. Ferguson, son of Mrs. James C. Ferguson of Houston, Texas.

The marriage ceremony was solemnized in the Lutheran wedding chapel with the Rev. Jack L. Neville, Jr., officiating.

The bride wore a spring ensemble of white lace over tulle with a corsage of pink carnations.

The couple are now at home in Lomita. Mrs. Ferguson was graduated from the Hamilton High school in Long Beach and Mr. Ferguson was educated in Texas. He is an employee of Douglas Aircraft.
